

Legal Infringement Policy

1. General:

- 1.1. Veraton Projects Ltd. must fully comply with international statutes, regulations, and court rulings, including all copyright, trademark, and other intellectual property laws and regulations.
- 1.2. If your web site, web content, Forum posting, e-mail traffic, or other use of the Veraton Projects Ltd. Services (as defined in the TOS) violates any state or international statutes or caselaw you alone will be liable for such use or content.
- 1.3. Veraton Projects Ltd. will not approve, verify, or endorse your web site or your content. All views and opinions expressed on web sites hosted by Veraton Projects Ltd. (and on other web sites supported by Veraton Projects Ltd. Services) are solely those of the owner or publisher of the web site or other third parties and do not necessarily reflect the views of Veraton Projects Ltd..

2. Copyright Disputes:

- 2.1. As required by international law, Veraton Projects Ltd. has designated an agent to receive notifications of claimed copyright infringements. All copyright infringement notifications must be sent to our agent, whose address is:

Diego Jacinto Batista Valdes, Vice President
Belize. Veraton Projects Ltd.
#1 Mapp Street
City Belize, P.O.Box: 2535
email: info@offshoreservers.bz

- 2.2. Veraton Projects Ltd. cannot take a position with respect to the validity of copyright infringement claims.
- 2.3. Under this body of law you must provide written communication to Veraton Projects Ltd.'s designated agent that includes substantially the following:
 - 2.3.1. A physical or electronic signature of a person authorized to act on behalf of the owner of an exclusive right that is allegedly infringed.
 - 2.3.2. Identification of the copyrighted work claimed to have been infringed, or, if multiple copyrighted works at a single online site is covered by a single notification, a representative list of such works at that site.
 - 2.3.3. Identification of the material that is claimed to be infringing or to be the subject of infringing activity and that is to be removed or access to which is to be disabled, and information reasonably sufficient to permit Veraton Projects Ltd. to locate the material.
 - 2.3.4. Information reasonably sufficient to permit Veraton Projects Ltd. to contact the complaining party, such as an address, telephone number, and, if available, an electronic mail address at which the complaining party may be contacted.
 - 2.3.5. A statement that the complaining party has a good faith belief that use of the material in the manner complained of is not authorized by the copyright owner, its agent, or the law.

- 2.3.6. A statement that the information in the notification is accurate, and under penalty of perjury, that the complaining party is authorized to act on behalf of the owner of an exclusive right that is allegedly infringed.
- 2.4. If we receive a properly formatted copyright complaint about your web site or web content we will notify you of our receipt of the complaint.
 - 2.4.1. If you notify us within 24 hours after we contact you that the allegedly infringing material has been removed, if your actions are sufficient (in the eyes of the complaining party) this matter will likely be resolved.
 - 2.4.2. If the allegedly infringing material has not been removed 24 hours after we contact you, we will disable your site. If that occurs, in order to have your site restored you may submit a "counter-notification" to us.
 - 2.4.3. You (the Veraton Projects Ltd. customer) must sign the counter-notification, identify the material that has been removed or to which access has been disabled and the location at which the material appeared before it was removed or access to it was disabled, and state your name, address, and telephone number.
- 2.5. Once we receive this signed document:
 - 2.5.1. We will forward a copy of the signed document to the person alleging infringement and inform them that the allegedly infringing material will be replaced or that access to it will be restored within 10 business days.
 - 2.5.2. Unless the person alleging infringement notifies us that they have commenced legal action to seek a court order to restrain you from engaging in infringing activity related to the allegedly infringing material, after 10 business days we notify you that you are free to put the material back up on your site.

3. Trademark Disputes:

- 3.1. Veraton Projects Ltd. cannot take a position with respect to the validity of trademark infringement claims.
